

The top row contains three photographs. The leftmost photo shows a large, flat sheet of light-colored wood with a vertical grain pattern. The middle photo shows a stack of many thin, light-colored wood strips, possibly veneers, fanned out. The rightmost photo shows another large, flat sheet of light-colored wood, similar to the first one, with a vertical grain pattern.

The top row of the collage features three distinct pieces of light-colored wood furniture. On the left is a dining set consisting of a rectangular glass-topped table and several chairs with slatted backs. In the center is a bedroom dresser with a large rectangular mirror mounted on top; the dresser has multiple drawers with simple metal pulls, and a vase of white flowers sits on its surface. On the right is a bedside table with two drawers, also featuring metal pulls, topped with a modern lamp that has a white drum shade and a silver base, along with a small framed picture and a cup of coffee.
